Weekly Announcements

Open Heart and Mind to the Spirit in this time of worship. May our mission to be a place of welcome, inclusivity, and joy bring blessing to all who are here.

According to the general consensus of the church, there is an indication in this record of the mystery of the Trinity. The Father created heaven and earth out of nothing through the Son, whom Moses calls the Word. Over these the Holy Spirit broods. A hen sits on eggs in order to hatch chicks; she warms the eggs as through giving them life by her warmth. So Scripture says that the Holy Spirit brooded, so to speak, over the waters in order to give life to substances which were to be animated and beautified; for it is the office of the Holy Spirit to give life. (From Martin Luther's comments on Genesis 1:2)

Today at Thanksgiving

Today is Holy Trinity Sunday, the third principal festival of the church year and the only one that celebrates a dogma, that of the three-personed deity. Not three deities, but three persons in one deity. It begins the long green season and concludes with Christ the King Sunday, the fourth principal festival. From Advent to Pentecost, our Lectionary focuses on the events of Jesus' life. From Trinity to Christ the King, the focus is on, well, Christ's life in our hearts. What does Christ mean to you? The Creator? The Spirit? The answers, and the way they are emanated in your everyday life, are the stuff of faith. Blessings on your faith today and every day.

Prayer Opportunities for Everyone

“If you feel within yourself the urge to call upon God and pray and plead and knock, then grace is already there.” (from Martin Luther’s sermon on the Man Born Blind, March 17, 1518)

Please offer this prayer until our goal is met: “Holy God, please grant TLC 500 one-time donations of $1,000 so that we can reduce our mortgage.”

You May Make a prayer request any time to Pastor Jean, and she will send it out by e-mail to all the folks on her Pastoral Greeting list. If you would like to be included in The Trumpet, inform Pastor Jean.

Things to Join In On

All are welcome any time

The Town Hall Meetings start this weekend! Sign-up sheets are in the lobby if you haven’t committed to one yet. Everyone is expected to participate in one of these meetings which will help determine TLC’s tomorrows.

Monthly Bunco meets in June on the 17th. This is not only an opportunity for TLC members and others to meet for fun, it’s an on-going fundraiser for our Capital Fundraising Goal. Come on, TLC. Let’s build up the Bunco times! Invite a friend or twenty.

Fill the Barrel and the Bucket Whenever you are shopping, pick up a non-perishable item or two for our ministry supporting F.I.S.H. and/or a package of dog or cat food or a pet toy for Homeless for Pets.

Coming Up

Beginning in July, we will begin collecting pet blankets and towels for Homeless With Pets. Cindy Heiller has been serving as their Veterinarian (bless you, Dr. Heiller), and Pastor Jean has offered to do a Blessing of Pets for them in October. We would like to pass out the blankets and towels at this event.

Last week’s offerings: $1,760 General; $328 Boyd Memorials; $499.99 Use of Parking Lot; $39.70 Cent$ational Sunday; $20 Rwanda; $20 ELCA Good Gifts; $20 FISH; $20 Capital

Attendance: 42 humans and 7 canines.

Looking Ahead—June 18

Next Sunday we will look at some of the traditions of the Twelve and their lives after Pentecost Day. It is also Father’s Day, so the word from Luther will focus on Luther’s meaning of the first article of the Apostolic Creed.
